

READING ACTIVITY CALENDAR

NOVEMBER

BLAST OFF!

SUNDAY

MONDAY

TUESDAY

WEDNESDAY

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

SATURDAY

31	1 November is Aviation History Month. Check out a book on flight.	2 Look up Dia de los Muertos , or Day of the Dead, a Latin American holiday.	3 Write a recipe for your favorite sandwich.	4 Write five interview questions you would like to ask your favorite author.	5 Learn to say 'thank you' in another language.	6 Grab a dictionary and learn a new word today. Use it in a short story.
7 Daylight-saving time ends today. Look up why we change the clocks each year.	8 Read The Sign of the Beaver by Elizabeth George Speare.	9 Read to someone younger in honor of National Young Readers Week.	10 Read about a Native American tribe.	11 Celebrate Veterans Day. Make a homemade card for a veteran you know.	12 Write a book review for a book you just read.	13 Celebrate National Indian Pudding Day. Find a recipe and make it with your family.
14 Find a photo in the newspaper. Write an article to accompany the photo.	15 Celebrate America Recycles Day. Make a list of things that you can recycle.	16 Read for 20 minutes today.	17 Take a hike if the weather is nice. Write about your hike in your journal or diary.	18 Write a Thanksgiving poem. Read it at dinner next week.	19 Many Native Americans used picture-writing to tell stories. Write your own story using picture-writing.	20 Research and write a biography about an author you like.
21 What country would you like to visit? Write in your diary or journal about where you would go and why.	22 Create a poster illustrating a children's book.	23 Make a mobile about your favorite book.	24 Interview someone from another culture about a holiday and why it is important to them.	25 Illustrate what you are thankful for.	26 The first lion was exhibited in the U.S. in 1716. Write a story about this animal.	27 Read with a grandparent or older relative today.
28 Pourquoi tales are part of Native American heritage. Look up this form of storytelling. Write your own.	29 Read a book from The Chronicles of Narnia in honor of author C.S. Lewis's birthday today.	30 Visit the library and learn about Navajo code talkers.	1	2	3	4
5	6	7	8	NOVEMBER IS NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH. CREATE A TOTEM POLE USING FOUND OBJECTS. WRITE A PARAGRAPH ABOUT WHAT YOUR TOTEM POLE REPRESENTS.		