

October

2009

Sunday Monday Tuesday Wednesday Thursday Friday Saturday

				1 Talk about the letter J, and then look for objects that begin with the letter.	2 	3 Build a fort out of chairs and blankets. Read inside the fort with your child.
4 Have your child be a letter detective. Hunt for objects that begin with each letter of the alphabet.	5	6	7 Read The Littlest Pumpkin by R.A. Herman with your child.	8	9	10
11	12 Talk to your child about Columbus and his voyage to America. Talk about an imaginary voyage your child might like to take.	13	14 	15	16 Teach your child the words to a song you loved as a child.	17
18 Bake sugar cookies. Help your child count the cookies and then decorate them together.	19	20	21	22 Create a pumpkin mask. Color a paper plate orange and then help your child draw a face and cut it out.	23	24
25	26 	27 Make up a silly, funny, or scary story. Ask your child to make up a happy ending for the story.	28	29	30	31 Celebrate Halloween and silly faces. Read Monster Faces by Tom Brannon with your child.