

Solve the Sweet Riddle

DIRECTIONS: Name the sweet treat described in each sentence below. You can use the word bank if you need help. The letters in the bubbles spell out the answer to the riddle.

Why did the reporter go to the ice cream shop?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13

WORD BANK:

cotton candy	honey	peanut butter
chocolate	jelly beans	popsicle
cookies	lollipop	strawberry
gum	marshmallows	watermelon

© 2005 READING IS FUNDAMENTAL, INC.

1. If you have arachibutyrophobia you are afraid to have this nutty spread stuck to the roof of your mouth.

_____

○

6

○

_____

1

2. A woman in California set the record for making a 23-inch bubble with this chewy treat.

○

_____

3

3. Early explorers used this heavy fruit as a canteen.

_____

○

8

_____

○

2

4. A 12-year-old boy invented this cool summer treat by accident. He left his drink outside with a stick in it, and it was frozen the next day.

_____

○

9

_____

○

4

5. This is the only fruit with seeds on the outside.

○

_____

5

6. This treat is known to melt in your mouth. Maybe it's because it tastes so good. Or maybe it's because its melting point is just below the human body temperature (98.6°).

○

7

○

10

_____

7. Although George Smith did not invent this candy on a stick, he was the first to name it. In 1931, he named it after his favorite racing horse.

○

11

_____

○

13

8. It takes 12 bees to produce one teaspoon of this sweet, sticky treat.

○

_____

12