

Across

2. The work involved in designing and building roads, bridges, machines.
5. Converting wasteland into land that can be used for agriculture or construction.
7. The removal of salt from water to make it suitable for drinking.
8. Able to be maintained at a certain rate or level.

Down

- 1. Concerning the air, land, or water on Earth.
- 3. Unwanted, often harmful, chemicals found in the environment.
- 4. Gasses in the atmosphere that trap heat that would otherwise escape into space.
- 6. Unwanted materials or substances that are left after you have used something.

Word Bank

ENVIRONMENTAL	ENGINEERING	SUSTAINABLE	LAND RECLAMATION
WASTE	DESALINATION	POLLUTANTS	GREENHOUSE GASES

Answer Key

