READING ACTIVITY CALENDAR

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
				1 What was your favorite journal entry for the month of January? What was special about that day?	2 Groundhog Day Did the groundhog see his shadow today? Explain to someone what a prediction is and if you believe this one.	3 Take a trip to the library to pick out books to read this month.
4 Discover unexpected friendship in The One and Only Ivan by Katherine Applegate.	5 Spread peanut butter on a pine cone and sprinkle with bird seed. Hang in a tree and count how many birds visit.	6 Read the comic section with someone today. How are comics and graphic novels alike? Different?	7 7 is a prime number. Find out what makes it a prime number. Circle all the prime numbers on this calendar.	8 Book Swap! Swap a book with a friend. Be sure to share if you liked each other's pick.	9 Complete a puzzle by yourself or with a friend. What tips do you have for completing a puzzle?	10 Umbrella Day Look up other words for an umbrella. Choose your favorite and integrate it into your vocabulary.
11 Go outside and observe the moon. Write about what it might be like to live there.	12 Read Each Kindness by Jacqueline Woodson in honor of her birthday today.	13 Learn at least 4 different ways to say "I love you." Practice and be prepared to use them tomorrow.	14 Valentine's Day Create a special card for someone you love today. Tell them why they are so special to you.	15 Find a place to read your favorite book for a minimum of 15 minutes.	16 Chinese New Year Look up the significance of red packets and prepare a couple to give to your friends or family.	17 It's Random Acts of Kindness day. What are some simple ways to show kindness to friends and family?
18 Unplug it! Spend at least 1 hour doing an activity that requires no electricity.	19 President's Day If you were president what rules would you make? How would your new rules change the world?	20 Read Who Was Abraham Lincoln? Or choose another President from the Who Was series to read about.	21 How many signs of winter can you record in your journal on the way to school?	22 Write a poem that describes your friendship with your best friend.	23 How many words can you make with the letters in "snowman"? You might be surprised!	24 If you had 24 cookies, how many different ways could you share them fairly? Illustrate your solutions.
25 Have a pajama day! Spend the day in your jammies and do things around the house, like reading a good book!	26 Tell a Fairy Tale Day Share your favorite fairy tale with a friend or family member. Tell them why it is your favorite.	27 Spend 27 minutes reading today, this could be a book, homework, reading a recipe, etc.	28 Tooth Fairy Day Read Throw Your Tooth on the Roof by Selby Beeler and G. Brian Karas. What is your tradition?
