

Reading Is Fundamental

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING FOR SUMMER LITERACY GAINS

Reading Is Fundamental (RIF) is committed to inspiring a love of reading in children and positioning the next generation to thrive in the 21st century through innovative literacy curriculums. We know summer is a great time to expose students to engaging, content-rich stories so we created Read for Success: Summer Program. This dynamic reading program is filled with project-based learning opportunities aligned to engaging books and structured to support summer reading program needs. This results-driven program will engage children in critical and reflective thinking to increase their overall reading proficiency.

RIF's Read for Success: Summer Program includes:

- Read-Aloud Book Collection – 20 STEAM-themed books, professionally curated to meet RIF's quality standards and designed to complement your summer program.
- Teacher's Guides – Designed to support project-based STEAM activities, strengthen reading and vocabulary development, and inspire an overall love of reading.
- Books for Students – Six books per child, selected from the full RIF book collection, for students to take home and own (supporting up to 20 students for a total of 120 books).
- Additional Resources
 - 20 student tote bags for children to take home
 - 20 student reading journals for educators to encourage deeper learning
 - Bonus: Productivity tools online including puzzle creator, word search, and additional motivational activities tied to student books.
- Professional Development – Online modules with tips and evidence-based best practices that apply across a wide-range of literacy levels.

Designed for impact, priced affordably, and shipping is always free!
