

Bull Trout's Gift

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD bank: the ground at the edge of a lake, river, or sea canoe: a long boat with pointed ends that is moved by someone using paddle farmer: a person who grows plants to sell and eat or raises animals freshwater: water that is not salty; water that comes from a river, lake, stream, or pond instead of the ocean habitat: the place where plants and animals naturally live harvest: to gather, collect, or pick something shrub: a woody plant that is smaller than most trees gravel: small pieces of rock graze: to eat a little bit of something barrier: something that keeps you from going somewhere or doing something

