Dina knows people love pie. Dina loves pie, too. Her favorite is apple pie. It is sweet. It is tart.

Dina has a diner. It is at a truck stop. Lots of trucks stop there. The drivers eat at the diner. The drivers love Dina’s pies. She makes all kinds of pies. Some are sweet. Some are tart. Some are salty.

Dina’s Diner

Dina loves the blueberry pie. It is sweet. It is juicy.

Zelda loves the blueberry pie. It is creamy. It is salty. It is full of"
They can share. They order a slice of each. That way, the chocolate or pecan pie is best.
Twin truckers Pop and Mack drive together. They can’t say if they like the crunchy crust. She loves the crunch. She loves how the berries pop in her mouth. She loves how the berries pop in her mouth.

It is fruity. She likes to eat it warm. She loves the blueberry pie. It is creamy. It is salty. It is full of

2

I love the chicken pie. It is filling.

Dina’s Diner

If you were ever to ask her, Dina would tell you that her favorite pie is apple. She likes the sweet, tart taste. She likes the crunch of the apples.
Dina loves making pie. You can taste the love in Dina’s pies. It is what brings people to her diner.

Dina’s Diner is at a truck stop. The truck drivers love Dina. Dina is always nice. Dina jokes with them.
Dina’s pies are famous. Dina makes all kinds of pies. Some are sweet. Some are tart. Some are salty.
If you were ever to inquire, Dina would tell you that her favorite pie is apple. She likes the sweet, tart taste and the crunch of the apples.

Dina loves making pie because she knows that it makes people happy. You can taste the love in Dina’s pies. It is her not-so-secret ingredient that brings people back to her diner again and again.

Dina’s Diner, down by the truck stop, is a popular stop for truckers. The truckers love Dina because she is always nice and likes to joke with them.

Dina’s pies are famous. She makes many different kinds of pies. Some are sweet, some are tart, and some are salty. There is a pie for everyone.