What Happens in the Springtime?

The days get longer.
There is more sunshine.
The sun warms the air.
The weather gets warmer.

In many places, lots of rain falls in the spring.
It waters the plants and trees.

First the trees grow leaves and then flowers.

The grass grows.
Flowers grow on the ground.
Other plants begin to grow.
The sun and rain help them grow.