Lebanon is famous for its cedar trees. Lebanon is a small country in the Middle East. The Mediterranean Sea lines its western coast. Syria borders it to the north and east, and Israel is to the south.

Lebanon’s Cedar Trees

Lebanon is famous for its cedar trees. Lebanon cedars are the country’s national symbol. There is even a cedar tree on Lebanon’s flag.