ROALD DAHL DAY 2017

Celebrate with ALL YOUR FAVOURITE HEROES – and meet Billy!

13 SEPTEMBER 2017

Greetings,

lucky recipient
of this party pack . . .

You have been cordially invited to celebrate the wonderful world of Roald Dahl. Inside this pack is everything you need to host a marvellous and magical Roald Dahl Day party on Wednesday 13 September (Roald Dahl’s birthday)!

Every Roald Dahl story has a sprinkling of magic, from Willy Wonka’s chocolate factory to the BFG’s dream jars, and this year fans everywhere are waiting with glittering eyes to see Billy and the Minpins, illustrated for the first time by Quentin Blake.

So, whether you’re celebrating in a bookshop, school, library or a living room, or even at the Roald Dahl Museum and Story Centre in Great Missenden, this pack is filled with ideas. Maybe you’ll build a BFG dream cave, create a reading corner worthy of Matilda, or start growing an enchanted forest for future Minpins. Let your imagination run wild.

This year we’re introducing Roald Dahl’s new hero, Billy – try our quiz and find out which hero you are! When you know who your favourite hero is, why not get stuck into our reading and writing activities, all inspired by Roald Dahl’s tales?

You could even dress up as your favourite character for a Dahlicious Dress-Up Day! Make your own bushy Mr Twit beard, or don a Willy Wonka top hat. The possibilities are endless and it’s a great opportunity to raise money for Roald Dahl’s Marvellous Children’s Charity*, which helps provide the best possible healthcare for seriously ill children. Everything included is suitable for children ages five and up, but make sure a Big Friendly Grown-up is present for any games.

Happy Roald Dahl Day!

P.S. Calling all teachers! Look out for lesson plans in this pack and download them all from the Create and Learn section of the Roald Dahl website. Plus, don’t miss the annual Puffin Virtually Live: Roald Dahl Day webcast, which gives your class a chance to join thousands of schools watching and celebrating around the world.

AND REMEMBER:

Those WHO DON’T BELIEVE IN MAGIC will never find it . . .

Don’t forget to send these out at least a week before your party!
Include a letter home to parents or grown-up human beans to let them know the details of your party and any party preparation that they might need to do.
ROALD DAHL DAY
PARTY HATS

To add to the party atmosphere, use this template to create your own Roald Dahl Day party hats! If required, ask a grown-up to help. All you have to do is cut along the dotted line and fold over the edges. Tape down the folded part and pop the hat on to your guest’s head. Add some elastic or string if they’ve got a wiggly noggin.

SPLENDIFY YOUR PARTY HATS with mini glitter pom poms, dazzle dots, iridescent threads and more! Go to page 24 to find out more.

What’s in MR TWIT’S BEARD?

Use the template below to create a collage of things you think you would find in Mr Twit’s beard. You can use anything you like to make items such as worms and bits of food. You can then cut out the disgusting beard and wear it on your own face!

![Collage template of Mr Twit's beard with items to insert]
Billy’s mum says he must never go out through the garden gate and explore the dark forest beyond. So, one day, that’s exactly what he does! See how many Minpins (and grunchers and whangdoodles) you can find in the word search.

George hates Grandma so much that he wants to do something about her. Something whopping, a sort of explosion . . . and here’s how you can make your own giant eruption!

WHAT YOU’LL NEED:
- A small plastic bottle
- Brown modelling clay
- White vinegar
- Kitchen roll or toilet tissue
- Washing-up liquid
- Bicarbonate of soda
- Red food colouring
- Elastic bands

1. Take the top off an empty plastic bottle and stand it on a flat, level surface. Use the modelling clay to cover the bottle. Try to make it look volcano-shaped, and don’t forget to leave an opening at the top so the lava can erupt out of it.

2. In a bowl, mix together half a bottle of vinegar with some red food colouring. Add a squirt of washing-up liquid and stir.

3. Carefully pour the vinegar mixture, using the funnel, into the bottle through the hole at the top of the volcano.

4. Wrap two or three heaped tablespoons of bicarbonate of soda in a sheet of kitchen roll or tissue. Tie the package together with elastic bands so the powder can’t leak out.

5. Drop the package into the volcano – then stand back. Marvel at the spluttering, fizzing ‘lava’ as it bubbles and splutters through the hole at the top, just like a real volcano (only not as hot).

WHAT’S HAPPENING HERE:
Bicarbonate of soda is another name for the chemical sodium bicarbonate. This is an alkaline that, when mixed with the acetic acid in the vinegar, creates carbon dioxide gas. Carbon dioxide is a completely harmless gas and is used to put the fizz in soft drinks.

WHAT IF?
- Try cutting the top off the bottle to make a wider hole. How does this affect the eruption?
- What happens if you leave out the washing-up liquid?

WHY NOT get your own volcano kit? Turn to page 24 to find out more. Watch a how-to video for inspiration at www.ypo.co.uk/volcano

Design YOUR OWN MARVELLOUS MEDICINE

Saucepans at the ready, it’s time to make your own magic medicine. First you need to decide what special power your magic medicine will have. Then you need a revolting recipe.

INGREDIENTS:
- A generous helping of rhyming couplets
  For example: ‘Throw in a wiggly, squiggly worm. That should make your tummy squirm’.
- A sprinkling of onomatopoeia
- A dash of alliteration
  Words that have the same first letter: ‘slimy, slithering, slug’.
- A splash of repetition.
  Shakespeare repeated sounds in the line ‘Double, double toil and trouble’. What could you write instead? ‘Hubble, stubble, saucepan bubble’? You can be as silly as you like!

REVOLTING RECIPE:

's perilous potion

Special powers:

GET CHARLIE to the Golden Ticket

Charlie’s lost his Golden Ticket! He needs to get into Willy Wonka’s factory so he can feast on scrumdiddlyumptious treats. Help him find his ticket in the maze below.

Answers at the end of the pack
Time to present your sweet to Mr Wonka! Write a short presentation about your sweet to persuade Willy Wonka to hire you as his new inventor. Use the table below to make some notes first.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name of my sweet:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>My sweet’s particular function:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Reason people will buy my sweet:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

<tr>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A bold statement or claim about my sweet:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Now write your presentation. Remember, Willy Wonka is very busy so he won’t listen for long! Keep your presentation to five sentences or fewer.

These diary entries have been all jumbled up! Can you match them to the correct Matilda characters?

1. I’m just glad I got home alive today after what happened to Amanda and Bruce. Miss Trunchbull was so unbelievably cruel to them. I can barely bring myself to write about it. I think she might be completely mad.

2. Today I met the most delightful child who amazed me with her abilities. Her reading level was so advanced, and the sums she could do … plus she had impeccable manners! And all this without any love or care from her family – the poor darling.

3. You’ll never believe it, but today was the best day ever! Got rid of a right bunch of rubbish – all it needed was a bit of spit and polish. Passed it on for two grand. I’m a genius!

4. Oh, what a fool! He actually managed to use superglue on his hair this morning. I tried not to laugh, really I did, but what could I do? I had to cut his hat off his head! He won’t be doing that again in a hurry – he’d better read the labels next time!

5. What a dirty, little worm. She deserves to be beaten every time she opens her gob. I have zero tolerance for the needy and the weak!

Answers at the back of the book
Now it’s time to write your very own diary entry! Roald Dahl’s books are full of daring, funny and heroic characters! In Billy and the Minpins, there’s a brand-new hero to meet, who goes on an epic adventure in a deep dark forest. Who is your favourite Roald Dahl hero? What would a diary entry from them sound like? Use the space below to write one from their point of view.
The BFG has many weird and wondercrump words in his vocabulary! Some of them have positive (good) meanings and some have negative (bad) meanings.

Roald Dahl is well known for his use of inventive language and the words he made up. We call it Gobblefunk, after the BFG’s instruction to Sophie: ‘Don’t gobblefunk around with words.’ Test your knowledge of Gobblefunk with our phizz-whizzling quiz!

1. If you feel ________, you are confused or puzzled. You feel as if your brain is reeling from a punch and is as muddled as a squiggly piece of doodling. What is the missing word?
   A. extra-usual
   B. mideous
   C. biffsquiggled

2. What is the name of the green fizzy drink that the BFG and other giants drink instead of water?
   A. frobscottle
   B. langwitch
   C. zozimus

3. What is Gobblefunk for ‘a young human bean, not yet a grown-up’?
   A. pigwinkle
   B. natterbox
   C. chiddler

4. What word did Roald Dahl invent to mean ‘cheerful’? For example, the BFG says, ‘a few gollops of frobscottle is always making me ________ again.’
   A. hopscotchy
   B. cockles
   C. catasterous

5. What is being described here?
   ‘A knobbly vegetable like an enormous cucumber with black-and-white stripes that grows in Giant Country. They taste disgusting but they are all the BFG has to eat, as he refuses to hunt human beans like other giants.’
   A. snozzcumber
   B. nibbleswicke
   C. puddlenut

6. What are the people called that work in Willy Wonka’s chocolate factory in exchange for chocolate? They love music and dancing and often make up songs to sing.
   A. Nishnobblers
   B. Oompa-Loompas
   C. Plushnuggets

7. Which Gobblefunk word means ‘delicious’ or ‘very tasty’?
   A. luctuous
   B. uckyslush
   C. delumptious

8. A ________ is a sea-creature like an octopus, but with four tentacles rather than eight. All of its tentacles are needed to make Wonka-Vite. What is the missing creature called?
   A. poddle
   B. quadropus
   C. bobolink
