

Rosie Revere, Engineer

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD chalk up: to give credit to something, to say that something happened because of chuckle: to laugh

dismayed: sad or upset doohickey/gizmo: a thing you don't know the right name for, usually a machine or tool flop: a failure, something that doesn't work gadget: a small tool or device, something you use to build or fix something else perplexed: very puzzled or confused, not understanding raging success: something that works really well or does a very good job stash: to put or hide something somewhere prototype: a model of something from which other ideas are developed

