animal cookies: small cookies baked in the shape of a common animal canteen: a small container for carrying water or other liquids chocolate milk: milk that has been flavored to taste like chocolate dig: to move soil in order to make a hole hole: an opening into or through something idea: a thought, plan, or suggestion about what to do kerchief: a square piece of cloth usually worn around your neck mission: a task or job that someone must do rest: a period of time when you relax, sleep, or do nothing underground: located below the surface of the earth