

Summer Reading Road Trip Bingo

Complete as many activities on the BINGO card as you can. Connect three in a row horizontal, vertical, or diagonal to win!

Find it on a map! Hang up a map of the U.S. After finishing a book, pinpoint the location on the map.	Greetings from... Create a postcard from the destination in your book.	Dear Chamber of Commerce, Write to the local Chamber of Commerce to get more information about the destination in your book.
Times have changed! Research online to locate a historical map from one of your destinations. Compare it to a modern map.	Character's Journey Draw a timeline of the character's journey from one of your books. Use it to retell the story.	Write your own travel article Choose a favorite location you want to visit such as a museum, zoo, etc. and write a short article on why it's a great place for tourists.
Local Cuisine Research the local food from the location in your book. Search for the recipe online and make it at home. Bon appetite!	Setting Swap Imagine the story you read took place in another location. What would the character do? How would the story change? Write or tell an alternative.	Alphabet Road Game As you travel by car, bus, or train this summer look for things that begin with as many letters as possible from A-Z. For example, the letter P for a park you pass.

Reading Is Fundamental.

until every child reads