

Dollar General Literacy Foundation

RIF and the Dollar General Literacy Foundation have partnered for nearly 20 years to bring literacy support directly into its communities where employees and customers live. From its Books for Ownership program to developing digital tools to rebuilding communities after natural disasters, RIF and the DGLF inspire the joy of reading for children while creating lifelong impact.

- Historical Partnership
  - 19 year partnership with national footprint
- 2021-2022 School Year
  - Implemented Books for Ownership program across 65 K-5 elementary schools in Dollar General markets
  - Introduced the Dollar General Monthly toolkits available online for family and educator engagement
- Impact
  - Reached 595,000+ students
  - Distributed 1.9M+ books

