

The Honeybee

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition ambition	when you have a strong desire to do something or be successful buzz	when you make a low, humming sound, like a bee or a phone on vibrate forage	when you search for food or supplies, like a squirrel looking for acorns perch	when you sit or rest on something high or narrow, like a bird on a branch pry	when you try to open something with force or ask too many questions shift	when you move or change position, like shifting in your seat to get comfortable swarm	when you move together in a large group, like bees around a hive teem	when a place is full of or swarming with things, like a pond teeming with fish tremble	when you shake slightly because of fear, cold, or excitement vault	when you jump or leap over something, like an athlete vaulting over a hurdle