

Frida Khalo and Her Animalitos

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition celebrate	when you honor or acknowledge something with joy, typically through ceremonies or festivities curious	when you have a strong desire to learn or explore new things heritage	when you connect with the traditions, culture, and history passed down through generations imagination	when you create mental images or ideas of things that are not present or have not yet happened indigenous	when you are native to a particular region or environment, especially relating to original inhabitants of a place mischievous	when you enjoy playful trouble-making or causing minor disruptions for fun mist	when you encounter a fine spray of water droplets in the air, often giving the surroundings a soft, foggy look reflection	when you think deeply about something, often resulting in personal insight or contemplation sensitive	when you are easily affected by external stimuli, such as emotions, sounds, or physical sensations special	when you stand out due to unique qualities or characteristics that make you different from the ordinary