

Spring After Spring

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition compile	when you gather and organize information, ideas, or items into a collection dawn	when you see the first light of day as the sun begins to rise defend	when you protect something or someone from harm or attack evidence	when you find facts or clues that help prove something is true experience	when you personally go through or take part in something inspire	when you make someone feel motivated or excited to do something investigate	when you carefully examine or study something to learn more about it migrate	when people or animals move from one place to another, often with the seasons scatter	when things spread out in different directions, often suddenly visible	when something can be seen easily vivid	when something is very bright, clear, or full of life