

The Greatest Gift of All

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition architect	a person who designs buildings clever	smart and good at solving problems construction	the work of building something, like a house or bridge design	a plan or drawing that shows how something will look impress	when you make someone admire or think highly of you knowledge	understanding or information about something overwhelmed	feeling like something is too much to handle prosperous	doing very well or having lots of success or money religion	a way of believing in a higher power visionary	having big ideas about the future and how to make them happen