

Emmeline Makes a Difference

Author: Storytime

Illustrator: Èlia Meraki

Themes: Courage, Activism, Women's History

Book Brief: Find out about a brave little girl who changed the world!

READ ALOUD

Before Reading: Build Background

- Ask, "Have you ever thought something was unfair and wanted to change it? What was it?"
- Explain to your child that this story is about a real girl named Emmeline Pankhurst who saw something unfair in the world and decided to do something brave to change it.

While Reading: Make Connections

- What does Emmeline notice is unfair? How does she feel about it?
- How does Emmeline try to make a difference? What does she do?
- Describe what Emmeline accomplishes. How does she help change things?

After Reading: Ask Questions

- Ask, "How did Emmeline's bravery help make the world fairer? What can we learn from her about standing up for what is right?"

RELATED ACTIVITIES

If your child enjoyed this book:

- Make a "Making a Difference" poster. Talk with your child about something they think is unfair or could be better (at home, school, or in the community). Have them create a poster showing the problem and their ideas for how to make it better, just like Emmeline worked to create change.
- Explore more free eBooks on Skybrary! Visit www.Skybrary.org to read more.