

Joy to the Whole World!

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition
joy	a strong and deep feeling of being happy
world	the universe and that everything that exists
Christmas	a Christian holiday celebrated on December 25 th . It is a time for sending greetings and giving gifts.
Santa	a jolly old fellow who wears a red suit, lives at the North Pole, and brings children presents at Christmas love	strong feelings of liking and caring for someone or something feast	a large meal with many different foods countries	large areas of land where people live under the same government. The United States, Canada, and Mexico are examples of different countries.
gifts	something you give to someone because of a special occasion such a birthday or the holidays.
family	a combination of parents and children. Aunts, uncles, cousins, and grandparents are part of our extended families.