

Building the Future

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition accurate	when something is correct and has no mistakes achieve	when you successfully reach a goal or complete something collapse	when something falls down or breaks apart suddenly clever	when someone is smart and good at solving problems in a quick or creative way design	when you plan or draw how something will look or work device	a tool or machine made to do a job equation	a math sentence that shows two things are equal impress	when you make someone feel amazed or respect you because of what you did invent	when you create something new that did not exist before obstacle	something that gets in your way or makes something harder to do