

Working Out the World

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition calculate	when you figure out or find a number using math complex	having many parts that are hard to understand curious	wanting to learn or know more discover	when you find out or learn something for the first time engineer	a person who designs or builds things exhibit	when you show something in a public place or display impress	when you cause someone to admire or respect something pattern	a repeated design or way something happens supervise	when you watch or manage something carefully universe	all of space and everything in it