

The World Game: Soccer Circles the Globe

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition aim	when you point or direct something toward a target you want to reach or hit angle	the direction or slant of something anticipate	when you think ahead about what might happen next burst	when you move or happen very quickly with a lot of energy deflect	when you make something change direction after it hits something extend	when you stretch out or reach farther intercept	when you stop something by getting it before it reaches its target goal	the place in soccer where you try to score; also a target you want to reach guide	when you lead or show the way pivot	when you turn or spin around one point or one foot position	where someone or something is located retrieve	when you go get something and bring it back