

Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition burn	when you heat something so much that it turns black or gets damaged except	when you leave out one thing that does not fit with the rest forget	when you can't remember something you knew before horrible	when you feel very bad or ashamed about something you did wrong invisible	when you can't be seen because no one can tell you are there mistake	when you do something wrong by accident scold	when you speak in an angry way to someone who did something wrong terrible	when something is so bad it makes you feel upset or scared