

Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry

ANTICIPATION GUIDE

DIRECTIONS

- Before you read the book, read each of the statements and place a check next to “agree” or “disagree” in the BEFORE column.
- Compare your opinions with a partner’s opinions and discuss your reasons for agreeing or disagreeing.
- After you read the book, read the statements again and place a check next to “agree” or “disagree” under the AFTER column. How has your thinking changed?

		What is legal is not always what is right.
		A teacher should tell students the truth, even if it could cost them their job.
		Standing up to someone who treats you unfairly is always worth the risk.
		Sometimes the bravest and smartest choice is to stay quiet and wait for the right moment.
		Getting even with someone who wronged you is worth what it might cost you.
		Owning something that is truly your own is worth great sacrifice to keep.
		People are responsible for their own choices, even when friends push them into trouble.
		You should judge people by what they do, not by the group they belong to.
