

VOCABULARY GUIDE

Code 7: Cracking the Code for an Epic Life

Chapter One	Student-friendly definition assemble	when you bring together or put different parts together anniversary	the date when an important event is remembered or celebrated each year demolish	when you completely destroy or tear down something mural	a large picture or artwork painted or created on a wall represent	when you stand for, show, or symbolize something pride	a feeling of happiness or satisfaction about something you or someone else has done vision	a clear idea or picture of what you want to happen in the future

Chapter Two	Student-friendly definition appeal	when you attract or interest someone contemplate	when you think carefully about something for a while enthusiastic	showing a lot of interest, excitement, or energy integrity	being honest and doing what is right, even when it is difficult profit	the money you gain after subtracting what something costs reasonable	fair, making good sense satisfy	when you meet a need, want, or expectation

Chapter Three	Student-friendly definition advantage	something that helps you or makes something easier capable	able to do something successfully fragile	easy to break or damage innocent	not having done anything wrong inspect	when you look at something carefully intact	whole and not broken or damaged occur	when something happens retrieve	when you go get something and bring it back

Chapter Four	Student-friendly definition compose	when you create or put something together dread	when you feel very worried or afraid about something that might happen method	a way of doing something prefer	when you like or want one thing more than another stern	serious and strict unusual	different from what is normal or expected vow	a serious promise

Chapter Five	Student-friendly definition admire	when you respect or think highly of someone or something cooperate	when you work together to get something done depend	when you need or rely on someone or something enthusiasm	a strong feeling of excitement or interest mishap	a small accident or problem that happens unexpectedly opportunity	a chance to do or experience something pressure	a feeling that you must do something or do it well support	when you help or encourage someone

Chapter Six	Student-friendly definition authority	the power or right to make decisions or give directions expect	when you think something will probably happen initiative	the ability to start doing something without being told persist	when you keep trying even when something is difficult persuade	when you convince someone to do or believe something prevent	when you stop something from happening refuse	when you say no or choose not to do something resort	when you try something because other choices have not worked

Chapter Seven	Student-friendly definition authentic	real, genuine, or true to who you are convince	when you get someone to believe or agree with something delegate	when you give a job or responsibility to someone else establish	when you start or create something that will continue honor	when you show respect for someone or something neglect	when you do not give someone or something the care or attention they need obstacle	something that gets in the way or makes something difficult preserve	to keep trying even when something is difficult possess	when you have or own something responsible	able to be trusted to do what you are supposed to do