

Wonder

VOCABULARY

August p. 3 - 81	Student-friendly definition ordinary (p.3)	when something is normal and not special in any way extraordinary (p.3)	when something is far beyond what is normal or expected guilt (p.11)	when you feel bad because you did something wrong mumble (p.15)	when you speak so quietly and unclearly it is hard to understand you pity (p.19)	when you feel sorry for someone who is suffering obnoxious (p.28)	when someone behaves in a rude, annoying way sarcastic (p.28)	when you say the opposite of what you mean to mock or tease grim (p.35)	when something feels gloomy, harsh, or without hope embarrassed (p.36)	when you feel awkward and self-conscious in front of others hesitate (p.38)	when you pause because you feel unsure about what to do deformed (p.44)	when a body part is shaped differently from the usual way precept (p.46)	when a short rule helps guide how you should live or act coincidence (p.62)	when two things happen together by chance in a surprising way

VOCABULARY

Via p. 82 - 118	Student-friendly definition apparent (p.84)	when something is clear and easy to see or understand invisible (p.88)	when something cannot be seen at all miracle (p.89)	when something wonderful happens that seems impossible obvious (p.94)	when something is so clear it cannot be missed genuine (p.101)	when something is real and truly what it appears to be confront (p.116)	when you face a person or problem directly instead of avoiding it stunned (p.116)	when shock leaves you unable to speak or move

Summer p. 119 - 133	Student-friendly definition plague (p.120)	when people avoid someone as if they carried a disease hover (p.122)	when you stay close by, unsure whether to act accuse (p.126)	when you say that someone has done something wrong popularity (p.121)	when many people know and like you syndrome (p.129)	when a set of symptoms tends to appear together

Jack p. 134 - 186	Student-friendly definition suspend (p.156)	when you are made to stay out of school as a punishment sincere (p.160)	when you truly mean what you say, without pretending empathy (p.163)	when you understand and share what someone else is feeling

VOCABULARY

Jack p. 134 - 186	Student-friendly definition loyal (p.163)	when you stay faithful and supportive to someone ridiculous (p.171)	when something is so silly it deserves to be laughed at awkward (p.178)	when a moment feels uncomfortable and clumsy

Justin p. 187 - 205	Student-friendly definition anomaly (p.188)	when something is unusual and does not fit the normal pattern abnormal (p.188)	when something is different from what is typical or expected universe (p.201)	when you mean everything that exists, all of space and time defensive (p.202)	when you protect yourself quickly because you feel criticized deserve (p.204)	when you have earned something by what you have done fragile (p.203)	when something is delicate and breaks easily infinite (p.204)	when something has no end or limit

August p. 206 - 235	Student-friendly definition
cringe (p.209)	when you shrink back in embarrassment or disgust rumor (p.209)	when a story spreads that may or may not be true ovation (p.231)	when a crowd claps loudly for a long time to honor someone

Miranda p. 236 - 249	Student-friendly definition protective (p.241)	when you act to keep someone safe from harm

VOCABULARY

August p. 250 - 310	Student-friendly definition retreat (p.250)	when you go away to a quiet place, or pull back from something kindness (p.300)	when you treat others with warmth, care, and generosity courage (p.303)	when you face fear or danger even though it is hard