

Over and Under the Pond

VOCABULARY

Word	Student-friendly definition deep	going far down from the top or surface drift	when you move slowly without a clear direction lunge	when you make a quick, sudden move forward over	above or higher than something prowl	when you move around quietly while looking for something reflect	when something sends back light or show an image, like a mirror does shadow	a dark shape made when something blocks light shelter	a safe place that protects you from weather or danger surface	the top or outside part of something under	below or beneath something