

How Did That Get in My Lunchbox?

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD ripe: grown, ready to eat to swell: to grow, get big, get fat bakery: store that sells bread or baked sweets to bloom: to grow flowers; for a flower to open tanker: truck that carries liquids stalk: the stem of a plant; the tall, thin part of a plant that something else grows out of to squish: to squeeze, smash, push on something until it pops or bursts factory: a place where you make or build a lot of something bunches: groups of something that grow together, like grapes energy: the power to do things; you get energy from eating and drinking

