

Snow School

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD

boulder: a big rock, usually broken off from a mountain crouch: to bend down with arms and legs close to the body cub: a young bear, fox, or lion/leopard den: a home for a wild animal gravel: small pieces of rock or pebbles mimic: to copy or to follow by example pounce: to move very quickly toward something pursuit: following something or someone swat: to hit with a hand or paw with a quick movement yowl: a long, loud cry or howl

