

All the Water in the World

A RIF VOCABULARY SCAFFOLD to wobble: to move back and forth; to almost fall over to cascade: to come down, like a waterfall to guzzle: to drink a lot of something quickly precious: important, loved, worth a lot tap dance: a kind of dancing with special shoes that make noise avalanche: a lot of something coming suddenly stampede: a lot of animals running delicious: tastes good, yummy to meander: to wander, go slowly; to not go in a straight line wealth: money; a lot of something

